April 5 Midday Prayer Welcomes Author/Speaker Danielle Shroyer

At the Midday Prayer Service on Wednesday, April 5, we welcome special guest preacher Danielle Shroyer. She will share on the topic "Original Blessing" at 12 p.m. in the Chapel. Following will be a lunch and discussion in the Parlor with Danielle. Cost for lunch is $7 per person. Please RSVP for the lunch with Patty O'Brien at pobrien@fpcfw.org or 817-335-1231.

Danielle Shroyer is an author, speaker, pastor, and founding member of the emerging church movement. She is the author of Original Blessing: Putting Sin in Its Rightful Place (Fortress Press, November 2016), Where Jesus Prayed: Illuminations on the Lord's Prayer in the Holy Land (Paraclete, 2015), and The Boundary-Breaking God: An Unfolding Story of Hope and Promise (Jossey-Bass, 2009). She holds a BA from Baylor University and an MDiv from Princeton Theological Seminary. Danielle lives with her husband and two children in Dallas, Texas. You can find her at www.danielleshroyer.com.

Legacy Sunday Celebrates 50+ Year Membership

Sunday, April 23
11 a.m. Worship

The Congregational Care Committee will recognize all who have been members of FPC for at least 50 years at the 11 a.m. worship service on April 23. These "Legacy Members" are invited to come at 10:30 a.m. for photos in the Narthex and stay after worship for a reception at 12 p.m. on the 3rd Floor Concourse. Even if you are unable to attend, you will be close in our hearts and prayers as we celebrate your longevity in the church. Those who have them, be sure to wear your Legacy Member pin. Those welcomed as new Legacy Members will receive their pin at the service.

Continue observing Lent and Easter this month with the First Presbyterian community.

Sermon Series in Lent

For the remaining Sundays in Lent, Karl Travis will continue a special sermon series:
April 2: Being Forgiving

PASTORS' LETTER

Dear Friends,

As this is Lent, let me offer an odd confession; there are parts of being a minister which I do not like.

Being a pastor sometimes feels like being a cop at the side of the road; suddenly aware of the possibility of being punished, people naturally slow down. Likewise, face to face with a minister, some people suddenly feel guilty, or defensive, or nervous. I've never enjoyed that part of my vocation, being a walking guilt-magnet.

I ran into a parishioner in a grocery store once. I hadn't seen her for sometime. I had not seen her because the only place I would have seen this particular parishioner would have been in worship and, well, I suppose she hadn't been to worship in awhile. (At the expense of losing my minister's union card, I will tell you that we do not sit around and check the worship attendance roll!) So, when I saw her, I was delighted and excitedly asked how she was doing. She launched into a spirited explanation of her justified absences from church – again, which I hadn't even registered – and seemed horrified throughout her entire recitation. I assured her that my missing her was completely genuine, and that I understood, and that I would rejoice when circumstance again ushered her to the sanctuary door. Then, her confession complete, I asked her again, "Now, how are you?" We had a great conversation.

I love the sitcom, The Big Bang Theory. Here is one of my favorite all time exchanges, between Sheldon and Amy, scientists, on their first date.

Amy Farrah Fowler: I'm here because my mother and I have agreed that I will date at least once a year.

Sheldon Cooper: Interesting. My mother and I have the same agreement about church.

Amy Farrah Fowler: I don't object to the concept of a deity, but I'm baffled by the notion of one that takes attendance.

Worship attendance is hardly the issue, is it!

That Christianity is associated with guilt is a natural outgrowth of the faith's attention to what we most fear: guilt and death. The church has certainly, at times, dwelt on guilt in an unhealthy, unredeeming way, but dealing with guilt is hardly the faith's failure. It is the faith's job. And if facing guilt is necessarily uncomfortable, then I suppose that being a minister will sometimes be uncomfortable, too. It comes with the territory of leading within a community which seeks to nourish our spirits through thick and thin, through faith and sin.

You've received this Penn Street Letter just in time for Holy Week and Easter. Pastor's columns that arrive just before Easter inevitably brag about the coming worship opportunities, the magnificent music being prepared, the joyous festivities already afoot. They might even mention the stark beauty and foreboding elegance of Holy Week services – Mandy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday. The skeptical parishioner can be excused, when reading such musings, for imagining a God who takes attendance.

But might you allow me the honesty to observe that we are family, you and I, called into the same communion by a subversively loving and outrageously forgiving God? Is it a welcome acknowledgement to observe just how remarkably blessed we are, that the same Deity which has created and called us to share life together actually pleasures – no, really; it's true! – actually pleasures in hearing our joint praise?

The next time I see you, I will be delighted. That's true in the Narthex and it's true at Krogers.

I'm certain of this, too; when God sees us together, and hears us sing, God is delighted also.

See you in church,

World Premier at Next Penn Street Arts Event

CONNECT this April

Below are some opportunities to connect, study, and learn together this month at First Presbyterian Church.

PW Tuesday Together

Tuesday, April 18
10:30 a.m. in the Great Hall

The next Presbyterian Women's Tuesday Together welcomes Joyce Williams, historian and contributor to Grace and Gumption, Stories of Fort Worth, will present a fascinating lens into our city's history. All women are welcome. Lunch follows ($7). Please RSVP by April 10 to Celeste Falter in the church office at 817-335-1231 or cfalter@fpcf.org.

Women, Mark Your Calendars for August 29, 2017!

Come and learn about our 2017-2018 Presbyterian Women's Bible Study, "Cloud of Witnesses" by author Melissa Bane Sevier. Watch for more details.

Crossing Borders: Migration, Theology, & the Human Journey

Sundays, April 23-June 11
4-6:30 p.m. in Stripling Conf. Room

This 8-week session on the subject of immigration is a focused module of the JustFaith program. It provides participants a chance to prayerfully find common ground regarding one of the most controversial issues of our time and to discover more about their values, our God, and the millions of people who are on the move in the world. The introductory study consists of eight 2.5 hour sessions (topics on website). Limited to 10 participants. Offered by the Spiritual Formation Subcommittee of the Adult Christian Nurture Committee. Books are $65. Please register by April 14 at fpcf.org/crossingborders/ or call Celeste Falter at 817-335-1231.

Book People in April

Monday, April 10
1 p.m. (Note time change!)

This meeting of Book People will discuss Britt-Marie Was Here by Fredrik Backman. Perhaps you will not like her because she is overly controlling and has an obsessive need for order. Or perhaps you will become amazed at the ways she learns to deal with the challenges life throws at her. A discussion will ensue on our need to belong - somewhere, anywhere. Please note we meet at 1 p.m. (instead of noon), following Holy Week Monday worship in the chapel at noon.

The May 8 book is The Dovekeepers by Alice Hoffman.

Growing Toward God Through Prayer

Saturday, April 29
9 a.m. - 2 p.m. in Atrium

We can all stand to be more intentional about growing our relationship with God. And what is prayer if not intimate relationship with our Source, our Being, and our Ground. Using this formational work by Dr. Corrine Ware, the group will discover where their prayer life is currently strong and where they may need growth in order to be fully open to the Holy. After identifying their growing edges, participants will have an opportunity to explore various ways to pray that can expand their availability to and connection with God.

There is no cost other than $8 for lunch. Please RSVP to Celeste Falter at 817-335-1231 by April 7.

SERVE this Spring

Below are some opportunities to engage the world through FPC mission outreach efforts this month. For a complete list of ongoing opportunities, visit www.fpcfw.org/serve.

Homeless Connect: Calling All Volunteers!

The 2017 Homeless Connect will be Thursday, April 27 from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. at FPC. Volunteers are needed to assist 300+ people experiencing homelessness as they come to FPC for this annual event. Social service agencies will be on site to offer information and direct assistance with health, housing and other concerns. For more details or to sign up, please contact Donna Lamina at dlyn22@hotmail.com

Volunteers are needed for the following times:

- 8:30 - 11 a.m.
- 10:30 a.m. - 1 p.m.
- Full Shift (8:30 a.m. - 1 p.m.)

FPC's Presbyterian Women is collecting the following items for the women attending the annual Homeless Connect. Please drop off donations of new bras, underwear, new/used scarves, perfume samples, feminine products, and canvas/cloth bags in the box in the Presbyterian Women's office (Room 312).

Serve as a Shepard at WOW!

WOW! (Worship on Wednesday) needs a few shepherds for our elementary students on Wednesdays from 6:15-7:30 p.m. at Community Crossroads (1516 Hemphill). A lead teacher is provided and volunteers assist as their schedule allows; serve as often as you like.

For questions or to sign up, please contact Leah Wyckoff at leahw@fpcfw.org.

Habitat for Humanity Lunch Blitz on May 10

If you don't want to swing a hammer or climb a ladder, come make a lunch for Habitat on May 10! FPC will provide lunch for the volunteers at the Habitat Blitz Build on Wednesday, May 10. Lunch supplies will be provided by the Mission Outreach Committee. We need volunteers to assemble about 200 lunches from 9:30-10:30 a.m. in the Great Hall. If you can help in this way, please RSVP with Marnie Meeks at mmeeks@fpcfw.org or 817-335-1231.

Habitat Saturday Workday on May 13

On Saturday, May 13 all FPC folks are encouraged to participate in a Habitat workday for the Presbyterian House Build for the Thang family. Hours are 8 a.m. - 3 p.m. Tasks for everyone!

There are many other opportunities to volunteer for this build, but this day we hope to have a huge turn out of FPC folks and will offer childcare for those volunteers with children. Childcare offered for children up to age 7 from 7:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. at FPC. To reserve a spot in childcare, contact Alyssa Martin at amartin@fpcfw.org or 817-335-1231, ext. 254 by May 5.

ALL-CHURCH RETREAT

reconnect

Labor Day Weekend 2017
September 1-4
Mo-Ranch Retreat Center

REGISTER BY APRIL 30 FOR GUARANTEED HOUSING
AT FPCFW.ORG/ALLCHURCHRETREAT

The annual FPC All-Church Retreat is a time set aside for folks together for fun, fellowship, and to reconnect. In fact, Reconnect is our theme for this year's event. Reconnect to each other, to our families, to God. Sign up with deposit equal to 50% total due by April 30 for guaranteed housing using brochures at the church or online form at fpcfw.org/allchurchretreat. Brochure and website also detail lodging and meal plan choices. If you have any questions, feel free to contact Robyn Michalove or call 817-335-1231.

We will meet together as a large group on Saturday morning to kick off our theme, "Reconnect." We will also enjoy meals together and gather for evening reflections and Sunday morning worship. This is truly a retreat format, meaning that there is plenty of time built into our schedule for rest, recreation and relaxation!

Optional Activities Include:

High Ropes Course (ages 10 and up; $20 per person)
Rock climbing wall (ages 5 and up; $10 per person)
Critters Class ($5 per person)
Swimming pool (including toddler pool)
Riverfront activities: Mo slide, rope swing, rapids, floating the river
Stand Up Paddleboards, fishing and canoeing
Day trips to Kerrville or Fredericksburg
River's Voice concert
Movie and Game night
Line Dancing Lessons and All-Church Dance
+ much more!

A gift or bequest to the Living Assistance Fund will help FPC members in need of rental assistance.

For more information on this or other Planned Giving opportunities through the church, please contact Church Administrator, Dana Fickling, at 817-335-1231.

STEWARDSHIP

Inspiring Disciples

As the Stewardship Committee looks at the future needs of the church, we find it helpful to reflect on how and why sharing our time, talent and resources is so important. We asked Martha Zaborowski to talk with some of our new members and others she works with to answer the questions: (1) How have you been inspired by the ministries of the church and (2) What has the church done for you personally? Over the next few months, we'll share some of these responses. Jim Parr shares his thoughts on these two questions, saying:

"One of the many things which inspires me about FPC is our commitment to bring God's love into the world through outreach ministries. One shining example of this is the Community Crossroads project. It is bricks and mortar, rescued and rehabbed by members of our church. It is a food pantry, a clothing closet, a dental clinic and a wonderful Worship on Wednesdays bringing God's love directly to a community in need. Thanks be to God!

What has FPC done for me? It provides a place where my faith is supported and restored. Its members show me love through friendly greetings on Sunday and share outreach ministries with me through the week. Its pastors challenge me to think deeper and find God in the events of every day. And it provides chances for fellowship with members of His flock. In short, FPC provides my church home."

Perhaps, Jim's thoughts will inspire you as you ponder what FPC does for you and what you feel called to do for FPC.

KidsHope Makes a Difference

For over a year and a half, for one hour of each week that the DeZavala Elementary School doors are open, I have had the honor of keeping company with a boy named Michael. Michael is now 8 years old and has reintroduced me to basketball, soccer and Old Maid. Most importantly, he has gifted me with his joys and concerns.

None of this would be happening without the organization, training, and ongoing support of the Kids Hope program. I volunteered because I hoped to make a positive difference for a child. How was I to know that a young boy would bring so much love and joy into my life?! Making this commitment and experience one of the most meaningful ever!

-- Mary Margaret Floyd

More volunteers are needed to walk with and encourage the many children who will welcome a mentor into their lives! If you'd like to volunteer as a mentor or prayer partner (or a prayer partner coordinator), please contact Robyn Michalove at robym@fpcfw.org or 817-335-1231.
